VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES (Check Any That Interest You)

- Annual Show: An ideal opportunity to meet nationally-known art directors, see the diverse work created by area designers and work with fellow club members on a wide variety of projects. Projects include entry sorting, judging, catalog design and production, AV, awards dinner planning and exhibit design.
- Education: A chance to give back to the design community through assisting with Studio Tours, Career Day and the Real Show.
- Publications: Help keep members informed of changes in design and our design community through writing, designing, illustrating and photographing for our publications. A great opportunity to be seen and heard.
- Membership: Greet people at programs, produce our Pricing Survey and Member Roster and develop and expand our membership benefits.
- Programs: Help educate our members on diverse design topics by helping to present programs by local and nationally-known designers.
- Marketing: work to raise the level of design awareness in the Washington area and the level of ADCMW awareness in our design community.
- Web Site: Keep web site functional and content up-to-date; manage email discussion list.
- People Power: If you aren't sure where you want to help, aren't sure where you'd be appreciated most, or just want to be available on an "as needed" basis.
